EASTER MORNING CHILDREN'S PROGRAM 9:00 AM IN FELLOWSHIP HALL

APRIL 6, 2022

One Great Hour of Sharing this Sunday

Palm Sunday is the day that we traditionally receive our One Great Hour of Sharing offering. This is an offering of the PC(USA) of which 100% of the money given goes directly to people who are in need. Money from One Great Hour of Sharing directly benefits those whose lives have been affected by the devastation of natural disasters, those who are hungry and also those who are in need of learning skills to improve their lives/community.

You can give to this awesome collection that our denomination receives at fpcl.us/give OR by mailing your checks to the church office [with "OGHS" in the memo]. To learn more information about this offering & the faithful impact it has click here

The tradition of placing flowers on the cross Easter Morning has been something FPCL has done for many, many years. Please feel free to bring flowers from your own garden to decorate this beautiful cross.

There will also be a variety of loose flowers available for anyone who wishes to place some on the cross as you come to worship.

Speakers: Ms. Parima Shah will speak about the Jain book, Atma Siddhi, liberation of the soul; Mr. Gaurav Rastogi will speak about texts important to Hindus.

All are welcome! Please feel free to invite others to attend.

If you missed the March 9 Religion Chat with speakers Dr. Asad Tarsin, Muslim Community Center East Bay, Pleasanton; and Pastor John Bost, Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Livermore, here is the link to the recording

Thank You!

As I was looking through the volume of sympathy cards received, I wanted to send all those at FPCL my sincere appreciation who sent wishes and words of comfort after David's passing.

Thank you, -Joan Sisson
