Volunteer Opportunities

Laundry Ministry

Volunteers are needed to help once a month (or more if desired) with the laundry ministry at Asbury United Methodist Church on East avenue in Livermore. There are three washers and three dryers. Guests run their own laundry, while volunteers assist as necessary and ensure the machines are used appropriately and all rules are followed.

The laundry operates every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 12-4pm. One volunteer is needed each day during those hours.

This ministry is a collaboration between Asbury and Unitarian Universalist Church in Livermore (UUCiL), with Asbury providing the facility and UUCiL providing the volunteers.

For more information please contact the volunteer coordinator, Jacky Poulsen at 925-980-5754.

Interfaith Housing Inc. (IFH) Board Vacancy

This group is looking for someone from the church to serve on their Interfaith Housing Board. The Board meets the third Thursday of each month. Typically, each church from the founding eight faith communities (including FPCL) have two representatives. Currently, FPCL has one.

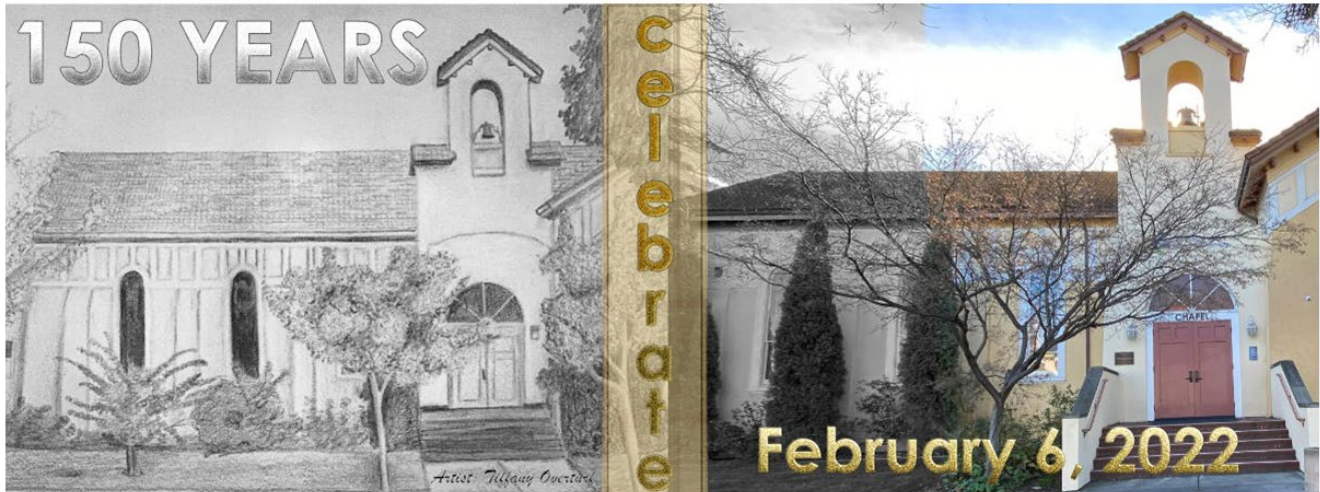

If you are interested in seeking further information on this volunteer position, please contact Patricia Renn-Gogny at prenngogny@outlook.com
